MEMORANDUM FOR: Colonel White

SUBJECT : Letter to General Services Administration

STATINTL

[REDACTED] Assistant General Counsel for the Logistics Office, advises he can see no purpose in including the hedge paragraph in this instance. The proposed regulations are in connection with the maintenance of a bidders list and in the main state a bidder may be removed from the list if he does not respond to a single invitation. Previously the bidder could not be removed unless he failed to respond to two invitations. The proposed regulations further state that failure to respond to an invitation does not mean you must remove the bidder from the list.
